Hanging With The Ape Man A Very Special Interview

"A Word To The Wise Is Infuriating."
Hunter S. Thompson, The Ape Interview

Malibu, California, October 18, 2012 - The Flying Eye Radio Network is proud to present a rare simian siting as the Ape Man himself, Jason Sinay, joins Andy Goldfinger on this week's addition of Music Gumbo. Having worked with notables such as Neil Diamond, Jerry Lee Lewis, Toots and the Maytals, and Bonnie Raitt, Sinay is a well-respected studio musician who has also produced many television spots including one for the 2012 Super Bowl. Outside of the studio, Sinay plays shows around the Los Angeles area with Mike Campbell of Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers in the band the Dirty Knobs as well as with his own band appropriately named Ape.

While Jason Sinay may not be a household name, he does carry a deeply engaged fan-base with devoted fans even coming from out of state to attend his shows. See what this well-loved Ape and his monkey music are all about in Music Gumbo's exclusive interview airing October 18th. Previous Music Gumbo interviews include Little Feat members Paul Barrere and Bill Payne as well as David Lindley, Coco Montoya, and Jim Messina.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors. Every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. Jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's a cerebral surge of auditory ambition. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each person has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, no consultant, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned artists that are out there making a living, touring and playing, and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis.

The Queen of the Flying Eye, Dusty Street, sets the tone for the week on Monday. She broadcasts semi-live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. Her knowledge and ability to weave everything into a musical theatre masterpiece every single week is truly art in motion.

Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio. It is the music lover's radio show. Steve brings the music of Austin and surrounding areas that we would never hear. Thursday finds Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger offering the listener a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Nothing but trouble finishing the week in our own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and his Turntable Hits. Geno's show is a tribute to what FM radio used to be. He is untethered and unleashed! Geno provides laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and the traditional weekend send off with the Bang The Drum ceremony. There is none better at intermingling the nuances of music, history and comedy into a cohesive understandable art form. The beauty is it's a podcast and can be listened to any time, via the web, or downloaded to your favorite Mp3 device or telephone.
