"For Every Moment Of Triumph, For Every Instance Of Beauty, Many Souls Must Be Trampled."

For Immediate Release

Eugene, Oregon, February 20, 2017 - After years of planning and numerous logistical hurdles the Flying Eye Radio Network is now broadcasting LIVE every Monday and Friday at 10am Pacific Time. Thanks to the tireless efforts of Founder and Grand Poohbah Andy Goldfinger this is now a reality.

With this latest development Flying Eye is looking to bring back Rock n Roll Hall of Fame inductee Dusty Street, and Goldfinger is confident she will be back. Additional content is also on the way in the form of a monthly installment of the Little Feat Radio Hour. With a musical library that spans all the colors of the rainbow, along with contributions from local artists, Flying Eye heads into 2017 poised with a fantastic outlook for the weeks and months ahead as they ready for the 10 year anniversary in June.

"This has been in development for a long time. While the podcast format is tremendous the LIVE medium is still the most exciting, and offers the listener a great opportunity for interacting with the hosts. The great thing is that even if you miss the live broadcast listeners can hear the show right after it finishes because it is posted as a podcast immediately following the live show, so we do still do podcasts" said Flying Eye Radio Founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger.

Recent interviews have included Freddie "Boom Boom" Cannon, Carl Verheyen, and Gary Mallaber. There are also interviews scheduled with Jake Shimabukuru and Robin Trower in the very near future. Flying Eye has always pursued the musician's musician when seeking out interviews. Tune in at 10am Pacific Time Mondays and Fridays each week for Music Gumbo. You won't regret it.
